

Name: Amos White

Occupation: Founder & CEO 100K Trees. For Humanity / Vice Chair Climate Emergency Mobilization Task Force.

My education and qualifications:

I am running for City Council to restore good governance to Alameda. Over 30 years, I worked as a community and legislative leader for children and working families; for Senator Barbara Boxer and then-State Senator Barbara Lee, and successfully directed the Kids First! campaign, a $5.5 million youth fund. For the arts, co-founded Carnegie Library Innovation Hall Community Advisory Board and former board member with Rhythmix Cultural Works; protected our environment drafting Alameda's Climate Emergency Declaration on CASA, Alameda's environment task force; founded 100K Trees for Humanity; and Vice Chair of Bay Area Climate Emergency Mobilization Task Force; supported our schools and PTAs at Lum and Wood, on AUSD Black Achievers Alliance, and Encinal HS Athletic Boosters; led Alameda's Townhall on Immigration with Chief Roller through ACLU People Power Alameda; and coordinated Alameda Peeps Red Cross Blood Drives. I will work hard for you every single day as your City Council representative. I will listen to and respect your voice. I pledge to continue to work hard for our community, for good governance, transparency and openness for our city.
